

CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA

A Smithsonian Exhibit from
The Museum on Main Street

Mount Olive, Mississippi

Sponsored by Jane Blain Brewer Memorial Library and the Covington County Library System in collaboration with the Mississippi Humanities Council and the Smithsonian Institution

October 30 – December 12, 2020

Monday-Saturday 10-4

Call to donate or volunteer: Martha at 601-797-4955
Barbara (text) at 382-1649

Check out the website for details:

Crossroadsmountolive.com

CDC Guidelines will be followed during the exhibition.

CROSSROADS: Change in Rural America

A Smithsonian exhibit sponsored by the Mississippi Humanities Council and hosted by the Jane Blain Brewer Memorial Library and the Covington County Library System.

October 30 – December 12, 2020

Exhibit Opening: October 30 at 10:00 a.m. Open Monday-Saturday from 10-4

Programs during the exhibit:

Traditional Fiddle Music of the Rural South	October 31
The Impact of Rural Electrification on South Mississippi	November 7
Railroads in the Development of South Mississippi	November 14
Centennial Farms in the Mount Olive area	November 21
“Hometown Makeover” video	November 28
From Snapshots to a Collage: Exploring “Rural” in Mississippi through Population Trends	December 7
Mount Olive: History and Development	December 12

All programs will be held in the Mount Olive Presbyterian Church Sanctuary and will begin at 10:00 a.m.

To volunteer as a host during the exhibit, call:

Martha	601-797-4955
Barbara (text)	601-382-1649